

Please do nothing that would water down the power of the INDIANA telephone privacy law.

Between this existing law and the law allowing me to notify any other solicitors to remove me from the call list I receive almost no unwanted calls. Do NOT remove this protection. If anything use the Indiana law as the blueprint for any actions.